

SUNDAY JANUARY 10

Eastern advertising Agent 230-234 Temple Court Building New York City, E. Kratz agent.

RANDSBURG

The Tulare Times says that Randsburg has 2,000 population. One saloon employs six bartenders. There are many people going in now but it is thought that after awhile the rush will be greater than ever.

The annual election for Recorder was held on the 20th. The first election, held in December, 1895, brought out 33 votes. This time the winner got 287 votes—not quite half the votes polled.

Religious services have been held for several Sundays past, and a vigilance committee is in full blast.

A population of 5,000 is predicted within 60 days.

A skating rink and another variety theater are being built.

A review of the business houses in Randsburg shows: Three blacksmith shops, three butcher shops, five stores, three barter shops, four feed yards, twelve saloons, twenty hotels, five lumber yards, two doctors, two drug stores, one tin shop, two assayers, one printing office, one news depot, one theater.

Twelve mills, exclusive of the gin mills, are running or about to start. These mills will hardly be a commencement of the machinery which will be necessary to crush the ore which our rapidly developing mines will turn out. It has been demonstrated that this town has all the water needed for any number of mills that can be put up. When the water is pumped and used it immediately finds its way back to the underground lake to be pumped and used again.

The greatest strike ever made on the desert has just been made two miles northwest of Garlock in the Mesquite canyon. Samples shown are one fourth gold, in an iron colored quartz that an expert would not pick up. Prospectors are rushing to the new field by scores, most of them from Randsburg.

Jones to Speak

Senator John P. Jones, accompanied by Supt. B. M. Gorham, his nephew, came in on the V. & T. last night and are registered at the Riverside. The Senator will probably remain three or four days as he is desirous of visiting the University and fulfill a promise to President Stubbs to address the scholars. He hopes also to come in contact with our leading sheepmen and others interested in the new tariff bill and ascertain their particular wants. He looks hale and hearty and has no doubt of receiving the certificate the people decided he was entitled to at the election.—Journal.

Scipio Craig, the general editor of the Redlands "Citograph," was the recipient of a good-sized bottle of old Bourbon on Christmas day, and one of that gentleman's enemies has started the report that the Citograph man took the bottle into a neighbor's to have the cork extracted.

Formerly California received Nevada's output of beef, but of late years two-thirds of the crop is shipped to the eastern markets. These eastern shipments are caused by inducements offered to eastern buyers to ship over the Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line railroads.

Lady Scott of London has been convicted of libel and must serve eight months in jail. She occupies the cell formerly occupied by the Duchess of Sutherland. Titles are of small avail when the hand of English law gets hold of people.

There was a hot debate in the House yesterday on the Funding bill, and the Parker amendment was adopted. The final vote will be taken Monday.

It is thought that Theodore Durrant will get a new trial.

A brute who outraged his niece and murdered her and his wife was lynched in Kentucky yesterday.

On Friday night all the Japanese laborers were run out of Orangeville near Sacramento with threats of hanging. Ropes were put around the necks of six.

J. C. Doughty, one of the candidates for Congress in the late election, received a long letter from a fellow in Washington, asking to be appointed private secretary. The writer said he was glad that he (Doughty), had been elected to Congress, and that if he was appointed as his private secretary the honor would be duly appreciated. J. C. has notified the applicant that he can have the job.—Free Press.
